

Which were adopted.

Mr. Elliott submitted the following amendment:

In section 14, in line 6, after the word "strait" insert "bay;"

Which was adopted.

Mr. Elliott submitted the following amendment:

Sec. 14, in lines 12 and 13, strike out the words "within five hundred yards of the shore thereof," and insert "in water not less than twenty feet deep;"

Which was adopted,

Mr. Carrico submitted the following amendment:

Which was adopted.

Sec. 10, amend by inserting after the word "master" in 6th line, "or any white hand employed on board;"

Which was adopted.

Mr. Elliott submitted the following amendment:

Strike out in line two, except under the "— sections;"

Which was adopted.

Mr. Westcott submitted the following amendment:

Amend section 18, after the word "lands," in line 5th, insert "and any citizen of any county owning land lying or bordering upon the waters of this State, may locate and appropriate in any of the waters thereof, allowing his shore three acres, for the purpose of preserving, depositing, bedding, or sowing oysters other shell fish, provided, that the said location or appropriation, shall be described by stakes, bushes or proper marks or metes and bounds which description shall be reduced to writing under oath, and recorded at the expense of the party, in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the proper county, and that the said location and appropriation shall not injure, obstruct or impede the free navigation of any navigable water; but no such location or appropriation shall interfere with the rights reserved by sections 18th and 19th of this act;"

Mr. Kerr submitted the following amendment to the amendment;

Strike out "third" and insert "five;"

Which was adopted.

The amendment, as amended was then adopted.